

Wisconsin Resources for LGBTQ+ Youth

Updated November 2016

Statewide Resources and Organizations

AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin (ARCW)

www.arcw.org

ARCW provides AIDS prevention programs throughout Wisconsin for gay men, injection drug users, women and youth at risk. ARCW provides health and social services to residents living with HIV. ARCW medical, dental and mental health clinics are available to people with HIV disease regardless of their ability to pay. ARCW also provides social support services which include residential housing, rent assistance, legal assistance, food services, alcohol and drug treatment, benefits advocacy and case management. Local ARCW offices are listed by region below.

Diverse & Resilient, Inc.

2439 N. Holton St.

Milwaukee, WI 53212

414.390.0444 Phone

www.DiverseandResilient.org

Diverse and Resilient (D&R) seeks to increase the capacity in Wisconsin groups and communities to assure the healthy development of LGBTQ youth. D&R serves as a catalyst to help LGBT youth groups get started, and continue to thrive, by providing mini-grants, consultations, adult and youth leadership training, and leadership coaching. D&R coordinates ongoing development and support for the Rainbow Alliance of Youth (RAY), a consortium of community-based LGBTQ youth groups that adhere to an LGBTQ youth development model, a commitment to addressing core program pillars, and shared program policies that support the healthy development of LGBTQ youth. RAY organizations are in the regional listings below.

GSAFE

122 E. Olin Ave. Ste. 290

Madison, WI 53713

608.661.4141 Phone

www.gsafewi.org

GSAFE increases the capacity of LGBTQ+ students, educators, and families to create schools in Wisconsin where all youth thrive. We do this by: developing the leadership of LGBTQ+ students; supporting Gay-Straight Alliances, training educational staff on creating safe and supportive school communities; advancing educational justice; and deepening racial, gender, and social justice.

PFLAG

www.pflag.org

PFLAG promotes the health and well-being of gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender persons, their families and friends through: support, to cope with an adverse society; education, to enlighten an ill-informed public; and advocacy, to end discrimination and to secure equal civil rights. PFLAG provides opportunity for dialogue about sexual orientation and gender identity, and acts to create a society that is healthy and respectful of human diversity. Local PFLAG chapters are listed by region below.

Transgender Youth Resource Network (TYRN) of Wisconsin

<http://www.uwhealthkids.org/pediatric-diabetes/transgender-youth-resource-network/46956>

The Pediatric and Adolescent Transgender Health (PATH) Clinic in Madison, Wisconsin provides education about medical care options for gender-variant children and adolescents. The PATH Clinic and child advocacy services at American Family Children's Hospital have partnered with GSAFE to develop the Transgender Youth Resource Network (TYRN) of Wisconsin.
